Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention:

a) regarding claims 1-11, the phrase "one kind of" renders the claims indefinite because the claims include elements not actually disclosed (those encompassed by "or the like"), thereby rendering the scope of the claims unascertainable. See MPEP § 2173.05(d).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

- (b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.
- 4. Claims 1, 4, and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Toshihiko et al. (JP 410227755 A) ("Toshihiko"). All of the claimed limitations may be found in the English language abstract of Toshihiko, except for gluconic acid or salts thereof. Gluconic acid or a salt thereof is anticipated because gluconic acid is a product of the activity of glucose dehydrogenase when it reacts with glucose. See the CAPLUS abstract of Howaldt et al. ("A continuous enzyme membrane reactor retaining the native nicotinamide cofactor NAD(H)", Ann. N. Y. Acad. Sci. (1990), 589(Biochem. Eng. 6), 253-60) or Woodward et al. (US 5,942,424) Figure 1 and column 3, lines 19-24.

For Claim 5 note that "electron acceptor" in the abstract of Toshihiko is understood to be synonymous with "electron mediator."

Allowable Subject Matter

- 5. Claims 2, 3, and 6-11 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
- 6. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: the prior art of record does not disclose the invention of
  - a) Claim 2, which requires an additive as specified in the claim;
  - b) Claim 3, which requires calcium ions in the reaction layer, and
  - c) Claims 6-11, which depend from Claim 2 or Claim 3.
